PREFACE

By means of this handbook we have tried to present Sweet Briar to you—what she stands for and what she is striving for. When you become a member of our community, the opportunity of fair play, good scholarship and a well rounded life will be opened to you. But Sweet Briar exists only in her students. Each one of us is responsible for making her live by upholding the high principles upon which she was founded and which she has endeavored to maintain throughout the years. By enthusiastic participation in class, school, and community activities, you will not only make a contribution to the college but gain much from it

AGREEMENT CONCERNING THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT OF
SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

The Student Petition (October 17, 1906)

The students of Sweet Briar College, believing that there is dignity and honor in student government, desire individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic.

We, therefore, petition the President and Faculty for legislative and executive control in certain matters. We ask:

I. Right to control quiet and order in all places about the buildings and campus that are not under the immediate control of a member of the Faculty.

II. Permission, with the advice and approval of the Faculty, to extend our power as occasion arises and we prove worthy to be vested with greater power and authority.

III. Permission to make such additions to the above as we may feel are necessary, with the consent and approval of the President and Faculty.

The Reply of the Faculty(October 20, 1906)

The Faculty of Sweet Briar College endorses most cordially the desire of the student body to assume responsibility for the conduct of individual students in non-academic matters. Therefore, the Faculty accords permission to frame a constitution embodying laws regulating the points specified in the petition—said constitution to be submitted to the Faculty for endorsement.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, we, the students of Sweet Briar College, desire to assume individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic, and, whereas, we believe that there is dignity and honor in student government, we do hereby, in accordance with the agreement between the Faculty and students, organize ourselves into an Association.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

THE HONOR SYSTEM

A high standard of personal honor prevails at Sweet Briar. Every student is expected to do her utmost to maintain this standard and at all times to consider herself an active and responsible member of the Association. The Executive Committee of the Association has the power to investigate and take action in any case involving an infraction of the Honor System. In performing this function it needs the support of every student.

THE HONOR SYSTEM APPLIES TO EVERY PHASE OF COLLEGE LIFE. A Sweet Briar girl's word is her bond and it is expected that every student will justify the confidence of her fellow students at all times and under all circumstances.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

Article I—Name

The name of the Association shall be the Student Government Association of Sweet Briar College.

Article II—Purpose

The purpose of this Association shall be to foster the individual and community interests of Sweet Briar students, by maintaining the high standard of conduct and decorum, and by strengthening the spirit of unity and the sense of individual responsibility implicit in the ideal underlying the foundation of Sweet Briar College, which was "to impart to students such an education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall . . . best fit them to be useful members of society."

Article III—Fundamentals Underlying Student Government

The strength and effective operation of Student Government depend upon the truthfulness and the high sense of personal honor on the part of each student, an enlightened and vigorous student opinion, and the recognition of individual responsibility for upholding and furthering the standards and the ideals on which the Association is based. Three things are fundamental:

1. A student will tell the truth.
2. A student will respect the property of others.
3. A student will maintain absolute honesty in all her social life and in all her academic work—preparation, classroom work, tests, papers, notebooks, examinations, and every other kind of academic work.

Students who do not acknowledge these fundamentals or who are unwilling to exert themselves to the utmost to make these ideals prevail are out of place at Sweet Briar. Each student is in honor bound to maintain these ideals in her own conduct and to exert herself to the utmost to make these ideals prevail among all students at Sweet Briar. Any student who fails, at any time or under any circumstances, to live up to these ideals should report such infraction promptly to a member of the Executive Committee.

Article IV—Membership

All students at Sweet Briar College are active members of the Association and must conform to the rules and regulations of the Association for such periods as they are registered in the College. Every student on entering college is expected to subscribe to the three fundamentals noted above by signing the following pledge:

I pledge my personal honor to speak the truth at all times, to respect the property of others, and to be honest in all my dealings, and to exert myself to the utmost to make these ideals prevail among all students at Sweet Briar.

Article V—Jurisdiction

All resident students, both individually and collectively, are under the jurisdiction of the Association. Non-resident students are likewise under the jurisdiction of the Association, except in matters which naturally are under the control of their parents or guardians.

All the legislative, executive, and judicial powers recognized as essential to a self-governing organization, shall be vested in the Association, acting either as a whole or through its duly authorized officers and committees, as hereinafter provided.

The Association shall co-operate with the President of the College in the enforcement of rules concerning the general conduct of the students.*

The Association shall hold each student responsible for informing her guests of the rules they are expected to observe while visiting at the College.†

Article VI—General Government

She shall appoint a Budget Committee to meet in the spring of each year to determine the budget for the following year.

She shall serve as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

The accounts of the Association shall at all times be open to inspection by any member of the Association or

The Treasurer shall make interim reports of the finances of the Association at the request of the President of the Association or of the Executive Committee, and at the last regular meeting of the year, shall render to the Association a complete report of the year's work.

BY-LAWS OF THE SWEET BRIARSTUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION*The Responsibility of a Sweet Briar Student

Life at Sweet Briar is based upon principles which are intended to promote the best interests of the community as a whole and of the individual as a member of the community. Since every student entering Sweet Briar automatically becomes a member of the Student Government Association, she is expected to accept its obligations and responsibilities as well as its privileges, and must be willing, therefore, to subordinate her own standards to those of the community. It is natural that some of the regulations may not be acceptable to every student, for they have been formulated to meet the needs of the group as a whole, but the individual's obligation to uphold them is not lessened on that account.

Believing that a willing and intelligent support of these regulations is the desire of every college citizen, the Student Government Association expects each of its members to inform herself of the academic and non-academic responsibilities and to maintain them. Moreover, she is expected to co-operate in holding others to the standards of the Association, in reminding them of their obligations in cases of non-conformity, and in reporting them to the proper authorities if infractions are serious or continued. The officers and committee members of the Association are merely our representatives for maintaining the high standards of our college life, and their service in no way relieves any student of her individual responsibility.

I—House Regulations

This does not include penalties for minor offenses.

Section 2. The Chairman of the College Council is the President of the Student Government Association.

Section 2. a) The primary purpose of the College Council shall be to act as an intermediate body between the Faculty and the students.

All matters which are to be presented to the Faculty, or to the Executive Committee of the Faculty by the Student Government Association, shall, prior to such presentation, be discussed by this Council. If, by majority vote, the Council disagrees with the original decision of the Executive Committee, the Executive Committee may, in its discretion, present the matter in question directly to the Faculty or to the Executive Committee of the Faculty.

b) The Council may discuss topics of general and special interest to the college community, and offer recommendations to the Faculty, or to the Executive Committee of the Faculty, or to the Student Government Association.

c) It shall be the further duty of the College Council to act as a Court of Appeals whenever an appeal is taken from a judicial decision of the Executive Committee. Such appeal may be taken either directly by the student convicted, or by the Student Government Association meeting as a Committee of the Whole, in case such appeal by the Association is sustained by a written petition signed by at least one-half of the members of the Association.

After such judicial review the College Council may in its discretion impose a substitute penalty, which shall be final except as provided in other sections of this article. In all cases submitted to the College Council for appeal, discussion, or review, the College Council shall have the same powers and duties as are vested in the Executive Committee when sitting as a Court. f) A final appeal may be taken from a judicial decision of the College Council to the Executive Committee of the Faculty, (1) by the convicted student only in case the decision involves the penalty of dismissal, or suspension: or (2) by the Student Government Association, acting as a Committee of the Whole, in case such appeal is sustained by a written petition signed by at least one-half of the members of the Association.

g) In all cases tried, appealed, or reviewed before the College Council, the accused student shall be heard personally in her own defense before sentence is determined, unless she shall with the approval of the court in question, choose to send to that body a written statement or a representative.

That after acceptance by the Dean and the Registrar, the names be posted for the period of one week, that a ballot be prepared for the main officers of Student Government, Y. W. C. A., Athletic Association, and the Board of Control of the Sweet Briar News, with special ballot for Paint and Patches, Senior Class President, and that these be voted on the day following the election of the Student Government President.

THE RELIEF COMMITTEE

Student Chairman, ELMA LILE, '48

In the fall of 1945, the Relief Committee was formed to supersede the War Service Committee, whose chairman for the year had already been elected by the students in the spring. A faculty chairman was appointed and together they selected three faculty members and three students, among them the Chairman of the Student Funds Committee, to comprise the Relief Committee.

The chief functions of the Relief Committee during the past year have been: to act as a clearing house for appeals; to instigate, sponsor and assist in carrying out projects having to do with relief. Its activities included getting speakers, helping to plan and stage the community drive for funds, helping various campus organizations collect clothes, food, and so forth, and send them to their destinations.

The Relief Committee welcomes all suggestions for possible projects to be carried out during the coming year.

SWEET BRIAR SONG

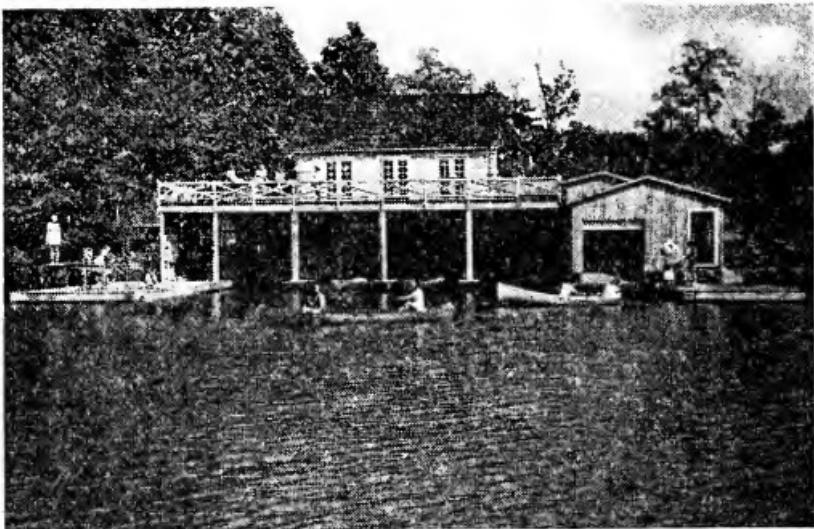

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, flower fair,
The rose that on your crest you wear
Shall never fade, but always bear
Thy beauty, O Sweet Briar!

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, thy columns white
Shine on thy hills a beacon light
Of truth, to burn with radiance bright
Forever, O Sweet Briar!

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, we sing to thee,
May thy foundations ever be Strong as thy hills, thy purity
That of thy rose, Sweet Briar!

SWEET BRIAR HYMN

Sweet Briar, thou art a symbol of beauty,
Lasting and growing forever,
Shining and spreading thy radiant light on our pathway,
Sweet Briar, living each day in thy beauty,
We'll think it gone when we leave thee,
But in the future we'll find it—
Within our hearts.

FACULTY RULINGS*

A—ACADEMIC

I—Registration

1. All returning students must file return registration slips by 7:30 p. m., Friday, September 19.

Registration at the opening of the year consists of (1) signing a registration card upon arrival; (2) paying the college fees; (3) enrolling for classes.

2. All students are expected to be present at the opening convocation at 7:30 p.m., Friday, September 19. Rooms will not be held for students who arrive after 7:30 p.m., September 19, unless satisfactory excuse has been presented to the Dean by letter or telegram before that time.

3. Registration for courses is scheduled in the spring of each year. During the opening week in September, all new students complete registration for courses, and opportunity is then given returning students to revise their schedules. Enrollment in all courses is closed when classes begin. If a student believes she has valid reason to revise her schedule after classes begin, and if her faculty adviser so recommends to the Dean in writing, the Dean in conference with the student will consider the advisability of such a revision. If the Dean approves such revision, the student presents to the registrar permission signed by her faculty adviser, the instructor and the Dean. Enrollment is completed when the student presents to the instructor a card signed by the Registrar. Every revision must be completed within the first two weeks of classes. The Dean has the power to modify the operation of this rule when the case of any student is, in her opinion, exceptional.

4. To drop a course a student must present to the Registrar permission signed by her faculty adviser, the instructor, and the Dean. The student remains a member of the class until the instructor receives from her a withdrawal card signed by the Registrar.

5. No student will be permitted to drop any course within four weeks of the examination period without the special permission of the Executive Committee.

6. A student must obtain special permission from her faculty adviser and the Dean, and the approval of the College Physician, in order to carry more than sixteen hours of academic work, more than six different courses, or/and extra-curricular courses.

7. A student may not carry less than twelve credit hours of academic work unless she is taking non-credit courses in music or art, in which case she must carry at least nine credit hours. Exceptions to this ruling may be made by the Executive Committee.

II—Removal of Entrance Conditions

1. All entrance conditions must be removed before the beginning of the second semester of the sophomore year. No exceptions will be made to this rule except by special permission of the Dean.

III—Graduation Requirements and Class Standing

1. A student must have a minimum residence of one academic year at Sweet Briar to be eligible for a Sweet Briar degree.

2. To be eligible for graduation a student must complete a minimum of 120 semester hours of credit in addition to the physical education requirement.

3. Every student must have for graduation a minimum of 120 quality points and a credit ratio of at least 1 for her entire course. Quality points and the credit ratio are computed as follows: each semester hour graded A counts 3 quality points; B, 2; C+, 1.5; C, 1. The credit ratio is the ratio of the total number of quality points to the total number of hours taken. These hours include courses which are reported incomplete, conditioned and failed. Hours of physical education are not included in computing the credit ratio. A credit ratio of 1 is equivalent to a C average.

4. Credit accepted on transfer or for summer school work does not affect the credit ratio at Sweet Briar.

5. A student transferring from another college or offering summer school work for credit is required to make for graduation a credit ratio of 1 upon the work pursued at Sweet Briar.

6. Every student is required to have for graduation a major rating of at least 1. The major rating is defined as the credit ratio for all courses taken in the major subjects (not allied courses) exclusive of courses not allowed to count for the major. If a comprehensive examination is required in the major, the major rating is computed by combining, with equal weighting, the credit ratio as computed above, with the grade of the comprehensive examination. A student reading for honors must also have a major rating of at least 1 in order to graduate. The major rating in an interdepartmental major is defined as a credit ratio of at least 1 on the thirty-six hours presented by the individual student to fulfill the major requirement, exclusive of courses which may be also allowed to count for other degree requirements.

7. Any student who at the end of the first semester of her junior year has a credit ratio below 1 for that semester, or a cumulative credit ratio below 1 shall be reported by the Dean to the Executive Committee for special consideration with reference to her return to college the following fall. A student shall also be reported to the Executive Committee at the end of the first semester of her senior year if her graduation seems doubtful.

. 8. For senior standing, a student must, at the opening of the college year, have passed 88 semester hours of work, with 88 quality points and a cumulative credit ratio of 1. At the beginning of the second ~~semester~~ the requirements are 104 semester hours, 104 quality points, and a cumulative credit ratio of 1. No student who has failed to make up a condition incurred in her freshman year may have senior class standing until such condition is removed.

9. For junior standing the requirements are: in the first semester 52 semester hours and 52 quality points; in the second semester 70 semester hours and 70 quality points. No student who has an entrance condition may have junior class standing until such condition is removed.

10. For sophomore standing the requirements are: in the first semester 26 semester hours and 26 quality points: in the second semester 39 semester hours and 39 quality points.

11. A student who is notably weak in her work will be put on probation, and if her work does not improve may be requested to withdraw from college. Every student on probation will be notified by the Dean, and reported to the faculty.

12. A student whose work is wholly unsatisfactory in the first semester of her freshman year, or who has not achieved satisfactory work after two consecutive semesters of probation, or after any three semesters of probation, will be dropped from college.

13. A student who fails to satisfy the requirements for graduation may be permitted to return to college for one semester. She must carry 12 hours of work and have a credit ratio of 1 for her entire course, and a major rating of 1 in order to obtain her degree.

14. Exceptional cases coming under 11, 12, and 13 may be referred by the Dean to the Executive Committee of the faculty.

IV—Advanced Standing and Summer Work

1. Application for advanced credit at Sweet Briar, on the basis of work pursued elsewhere, must be made to the Dean, as chairman of the Committee on Advanced Standing, and on the recommendation of the Committee, may be granted by the faculty.

2. Students wishing credit at Sweet Briar for summer school work should receive in advance the permission of the Dean and the written approval of the head of the department concerned. Only in exceptional cases will credit be otherwise granted.

3. The Dean is authorized to reject work of a grade below C, whether taken in summer school or offered for advanced standing from another institution, unless in her judgment the case is exceptional.

V—Examinations and Grades

1. All tests and examinations are given under the honor system. The student's signature to any written work is regarded as a guarantee of honest work.

2. General examinations are held twice a year. One or two days before each examination period are reserved for independent study and review. No assignments may be made for those days or for the free days within the examination period, with the following exceptions: (a) a student may make up work with faculty assistance at the student's request; (b) the ruling does not apply to examinations under the Honors Plan of Study.

3. Any change in the scheduled hour of an examination must be made through the office of the Registrar.

4. Examinations must be terminated promptly at the end of the designated time.

5. An examination is given in each course at the end of each semester, unless the department concerned decides upon some other means of testing. Substitution of a special piece of work for a final examination must be reported to the Dean and Registrar before the posting of the examination schedule. A copy of each course examination both mid-year and final, shall be filed in the Dean's office for the information of the faculty.

6. (a) In courses which are indicated in the catalogue by semester numbers which are connected with a hyphen, grades are recorded in the Registrar's office both at mid-year and at the close of the year, but the latter represents the permanent grade for the course, unless a grade of F was given at mid-year. In that case the work of the first semester must be repeated, and only then is a permanent grade recorded for the course. If a student receives a grade of F at the end of the year, after having passed the work of the first semester, in reporting the grade the instructor should indicate whether both semesters or only the second semester must be repeated.

(b) In courses which have the semester numbers separated by a comma, the grade shall be recorded by semesters or for the year in accordance with the desire of the department concerned. If the grade is to be recorded for the year, the conditions of section (a) are to be observed.

7. In courses extending throughout the year which are intended primarily for juniors and seniors, the final examination at the end of the year should include questions bearing upon the work of the first semester in its relation to the work of the second semester. This is usually a three-hour examination.

8. If a student is prevented by illness from taking a course examination at the time scheduled, she must secure a physician's certificate and present it to the Dean and to the instructor concerned. The instructor shall set the time for a special examination. If a student is absent from a course examination for other reasons she must forfeit the credit for the course unless she presents for such absence a reason satisfactory to the instructor and the Dean.

9. Grades are to be assigned with the following meaning: A indicates excellent work; B, very good; C+, good; C, fair, D, poor but passing; E, a condition with the privilege of re-examination; F, a failure which can be made up only by repeating the course in class. Grades above D are called credit grades. "Incomplete" indicates that required work in a course has not been completed.

10. A student who is reported "incomplete" in a course must complete the work at the time designated by the instructor. If she fails to do so her case will be referred to the Executive Committee by the instructor.

11. A condition (E) may be made up by passing a re-examination, or by other methods equally satisfactory to the instructor concerned, or by repeating the course in class. The re-examination shall be given at a time designated by the instructor. Those failing in the re-examination must repeat the course. The question of a re-examination after the grade of E given at mid-year of a continuous course is left to the discretion of the department concerned.

12. A failure (F) in an academic course may be made up only by repeating the course in class. This may be done at Sweet Briar, or at another institution, subject to the approval of the Dean and the head of the department concerned. A failure in a course in physical education must be made up by repeating the course at Sweet Briar, unless the Department of Physical Education prescribes some other method. A student must complete a course which she has failed to pass unless permission to make a substitution is granted by the Executive Committee. When a student has twice failed a given course, the question as to whether she shall repeat the course shall be presented to the Executive Committee for consideration and decision.

13. A student who receives notice of a failure or condition should communicate promptly with the instructor of the course in which the condition or failure has occurred.

14. A student whose work is of passing grade when she withdraws from a course before the end of the semester will not be required to repeat the course. If her work is not of passing grade, decision as to whether she will be required to repeat the course is left to the Dean, the adviser, and the instructor.

15. Before the middle of each semester instructors shall furnish to the Dean reports on the achievement of students in their classes. Special blanks are provided for these reports.

16. All examinations on summer reading must be given within two weeks of the opening of college in September.

VI—Absences from Academic Appointments

1. If an instructor fails to meet his class without previous notice, the students shall remain in the classroom for ten minutes after the second bell has rung.

2. A student is expected to attend her classes regularly and to keep her other academic appointments. Responsibility for attendance rests with the student.

3. If at any time a student's work is unsatisfactory, the instructor may notify her faculty adviser

4. All work missed shall be made up promptly, and in advance of the absence if it can be anticipated. Students must take full responsibility for requesting instructors for assistance in making up work. The instructor may refuse to grant such assistance, if he sees fit. Students may, with the permission of the instructor, change from section to section in order to make up work. They may not do so in order to remove records of absence, nor to leave college early before a vacation or recess, nor to return late therefrom.

5. Students are expected to remain at college to keep all academic appointments which fall before the official time set for the beginning of a vacation or recess. They are expected to return for the official opening of college after a vacation or recess.

All excuses for absence from college after a vacation or recess must be presented to the Dean by letter or telegram before the hour set for return to college. Only illness of the student or some serious family condition will be regarded as an acceptable excuse. In case of illness, the student must present a physician's certificate on her return. In the second case she must present a letter of full explanation from her parent or guardian. Any student whose absence is unexcused will be permitted no over-night absences from college for a period of six weeks.

6. A student who is absent more than four weeks may re-enter classes only with the permission of the Dean, and only in exceptional cases will be permitted to carry a full schedule of courses.

7. The Dean has the power to modify at her discretion the operation of any of these rules when the case of any student is in her opinion exceptional.

VII—Honor System

Responsibility for maintaining the integrity of the Sweet Briar degree rests both upon the faculty and upon the students. Nothing in the operation of the Honor System shall lessen this continuing responsibility of the faculty. The successful operation of the Honor System is essential to the integrity of the degree. Responsibility for the establishment and maintenance of the Honor System rests primarily upon the students collectively and individually; and secondarily upon the faculty collectively and individually. The strength and effective working of the Honor System depends upon the clear recognition of this responsibility by both students and faculty and upon cooperation between them.

To further this cooperative enterprise, it is recommended that:

1. At the beginning of each course, the instructor shall make to the class a careful statement of the bearing of the honor system on the work of that course.

2. An instructor, when consulted by a student concerning suspicious work which she has observed, should guide the student to the president of the Student Government Association to discuss the case.

3. If an instructor is uncertain as to what he should do in a given case he shall consult the Dean or the President of the College.

*For full details of the Honor System, see the Constitution of the Student Government Association.

VIII—Faculty Advisers

1. Every new student is assigned to a member of the faculty who is to act as her special adviser in regard both to curricular and extra-curricular activities.
2. Second year students usually continue under the direction of their first year adviser, but, after consultation with the Dean, may select another adviser whenever desirable.
3. After a student has chosen her major field in the spring of the sophomore year, her work will be directed by her major professor.

IX—Miscellaneous

1. A student in any department found to be deficient in English may be referred to the Department of English for special work in composition.
2. Permission to use social rooms or Manson Hall for other than regularly scheduled purposes shall be secured from the Dean.
3. All applications for self-help by students are made through the Dean's office. Any member of the faculty who engages the services of a student shall report this fact to the Dean, whether or not such work be remunerative.

B—NON-ACADEMIC

approved by the Dean's office. No over-night absence will be permitted during the two days prior to each examination period.

2. All overnight absence from college shall be limited in number, by classes. This number includes all absences whether occasioned by illness or family emergency, etc.

(a) Freshmen are not expected to be away over-night during the first six weeks of academic work. Freshmen may not be away from college more than four nights during the first semester, or more than five nights during the second semester. Not more than two consecutive nights of absence from college are permitted, unless a freshman has a credit ratio of 1.5 or above in the work of the first semester, in which case she may be away for three nights consecutively.

(b) Sophomores may not be away from the college more than seven nights during a semester, and not more than four nights consecutively.

(c) Juniors may not be away from college more than ten nights during a semester, and not more than five nights consecutively. An absence of such length shall not be taken more than once in a semester.

(d) Seniors may have over-night absences limited by the general rule for class absences and subject to the approval of the Dean's office; but they may not be away more than five nights consecutively, and that not more than once in a semester.

3. A student must secure written permission from her parents or guardian in order to attend dances at men's colleges, or to stay over-night in hotels or boarding houses, except in the following cases:

- (a) When a chaperon has been provided or approved by the Dean's office.
- (b) When she is chaperoned by her own parents or the parents of friends.

These permissions will be required for each separated occasion unless a general permission is filed in the Dean's office covering, for an individual student, the cases mentioned above.

4. No student may at any time attend a public subscription dance.

III—Motoring

1. Students must secure from their parents or guardian written general or special permission in order to be allowed to motor with men off campus. This permission must be filed in the Dean's office.

2. Seniors may have their own cars at Sweet Briar after the close of the senior examination period. These cars must be registered with the Dean.

IV—Religious Services

In addition to the Sunday service, there are two chapel services during the week. Attendance at all religious services is voluntary.

FLETCHER, THE LIBRARY AND ACADEMIC

THE MARY HELEN COCHRAN LIBRARY

The following pages are inserted with the hope of anticipating the most frequent student questions about library matters.

Since students are responsible for the observance of the rules of the library, it is important that these pages be read carefully.

One of the chief functions of the library staff is to help students find needed library material. Do not hesitate to ask them for help.

Library Hours

DAILY

8:30 a. m.—12:30 p. m.

1:30 p. m.— 5:30 p. m.

7:30 p. m.—10:00 p. m.

SUNDAY

2:30 p. m.— 5:30 p. m.

7:30 p. m.— 9:30 p. m.

Hours during vacations and holidays will be posted. The Study Gallery may be used for study until 12:00 midnight.

Book Collection

The Mary Helen Cochran Library has in its collection over 67,000 volumes. The majority of these are shelved in the book stacks, but a certain number are shelved in other parts of the library. Become familiar with the arrangement of the collection by consulting the accompanying plan of the various rooms of the building.

READING ROOM. This is the main room and on its bookshelves are the Reference Books most frequently needed (dictionaries, encyclopedias, biographical dictionaries, atlases, etc.). Reserve Books, that is, books designated by members of the faculty for required reading, are also shelved in the Reading Room. They may be taken out one-half hour before closing, and must be returned when the library opens next day.

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL ALCOVE. Here are found bibliographies on almost every subject as well as the Reader's Guide and other periodical indexes. The Book Review Digest, an index to book reviews, is also here.

MUSIC ROOM. This special collection contains over 1,600 books on music. Books with Carnegie Collection bookplates may not be borrowed. Other books may be borrowed for two weeks.

ART Room. This room contains about 2,000 books on the various aspects of art. During the day they must be read in the Art Room. Certain of these may be borrowed for overnight loan only. Reference books and books bearing bookplates marked Carnegie Collection may not be borrowed.

BROWSING Room. This is an attractively furnished room which is reserved for recreational reading, not for studying. It contains over 1,100 volumes—old titles and new. These books must be read in the room itself and do not circulate. They are arranged by broad subjects—fiction, poetry, essays, plays, travel, etc. Available for consultation in a loose leaf notebook is a list of these books according to the above classification.

PERIODICAL Room. The currently received periodicals number over 380. A list of these is posted on the bulletin board. The back issues of these periodicals are bound and shelved separately in the lower stacks on the east side (see accompanying plan). Periodicals may not be borrowed, but must be read in the Periodical Room, or if bound, in the stacks. Daily newspapers are also kept in this room.

UPPER HALL. Some music books are shelved here as are also books belonging to the Carry Nature Sanctuary (a collection of books about nature and wildlife) and the books belonging to the International Relations Club. Photography, riding, and dance books are also shelved here.

The Book Stacks

There are two floors of book stacks in the library, the upper and lower stacks. In the upper stacks, all books with call numbers beginning with 8 (Literature) and 9 (History) are shelved. Books of biography (92 and 920) are included with History and are shelved in the upper stacks at the south end. In the lower stack are found other subject books, and bound volumes.

LOWER STACK:

- 0 General works and bibliography
- 1 Philosophy and psychology
- 2 Religion
- 3 Government, economics and sociology
- 4 Languages
- 5 Sciences
- 6 Applied sciences
- 7 Recreation and theatre (Art books are shelved in the Art Room; Music Books in the Music Room.)
Government Documents and bound periodicals are shelved in the lower stack.

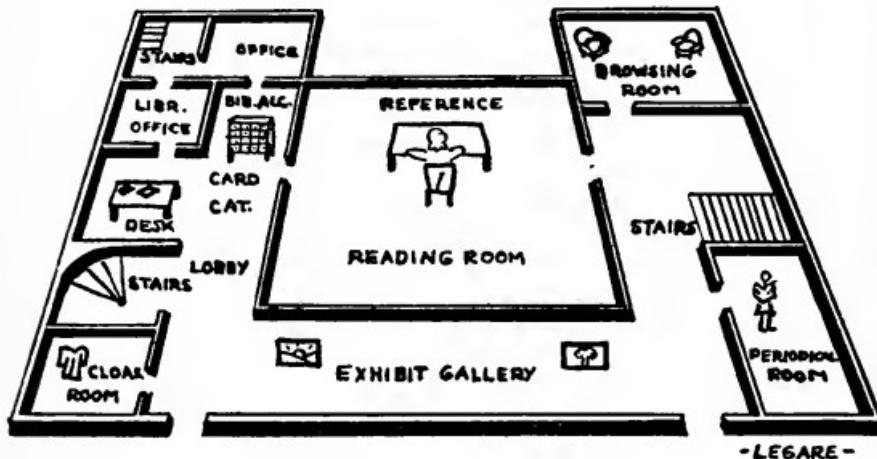

UPPER STACK:

- 8 Literature
- 9 History, biography and travel

Practice will help you to find the books you want under one of the above 10 sections. If you want to consult a book in the stacks do so at one of the tables. When finished, do not put it back on the shelves, but return it to the book shelf by the door.

The New York Times is shelved in the upper stack.

What is the Card Catalogue?

It is an alphabetical index to the books in the library, and may be used in the same way as a dictionary or an index to a book. Each book owned by the library is entered on a card under the author's name. This card is filed in its alphabetical place in the card catalogue. A card is also made for a book's title. In addition, there are other cards denoting the subjects of the book. The term chosen to express the subject or subjects of the book is called the subject heading. It is typed in red, and all books pertaining to this subject are listed under this heading.

At intervals through the catalogue there are guide cards which stand up higher than the other cards. These cards have significant headings on them and help you to know where to begin looking in a drawer.

How to find a book

The only place to find out whether the library has a certain book is in the card catalogue. Look under the author's name if it is known to you. If you do not know the author's name, but do know the title, look under that in its alphabetical place. Perhaps you do not know any exact book, but in general want to know what books the library has, let us say, on birds. In this case look under this subject heading, BIRDS. When you find the book that you want, jot down from the card its call number (upper left-hand corner) and then go to the stacks. It is by the call number that books are found on the shelves in the stacks. The top number denotes the subject to which the book belongs and the second line stands for the author's name. Both lines are necessary when looking for books in the stacks. Books are arranged in the stack book shelves from left to right on each shelf, first by subject, then by author and title.

How May a Book Be Borrowed?

After finding the book you want in the stacks (if you do not find it, ask the assistant at the Circulation Desk for help) take it to the desk in the lobby. (see accompanying plan). All books wanted for "outside use" must be charged at the Circulation Desk. Sign your name on the two cards in the pocket at the back of the book, stamp each with the date that the book is due (use yellow date pencil) and also on the date due slip in the back of the book. This procedure must be followed to insure a proper record that you have the book and also to remind you to bring it back by the time it is due, thus avoiding a fine. When you have finished reading the book return it to the desk so that it will be available for another reader.

Other Library Material that May Help You

There are many things that you will want to know about the use of library material besides the ability to find a book in the stacks.

For example, perhaps you want to locate an article in a magazine that you read about two or three years ago. You remember that it was about sulfa drugs, but you do not remember the author, though you think it was in the Reader's Digest. The Periodical Indexes (shelved in the Bibliographical Aleove—see accompanying plan) will help you to locate the article.

Perhaps you may want to find out the author of the quotation "A little learning is a dangerous thing . . ." A dictionary of quotations will help you answer this. During your college course there will be many times that you will want to find answers to questions. If you know how to use books, answers are easily found.

Watch the exhibits on the lobby table in the beginning of the year and make yourself familiar with as many of these books as possible. If you cannot find what you want, ask the assistant at the desk for help.

Regulations and Privileges

Certain rules are necessary in a library in order to protect the majority from the thoughtless actions of a few.

A copy of Library Regulations and Privileges will be given to each newcomer during Orientation Week. A digest of some of these rules is listed below. Please read this carefully as well as the complete copy when later received. The Student Government has approved these rules and the student is held personally responsible for their observance.

General Conduct

Quiet in the library must be maintained at all times.

The person who signs the book cards is responsible for the safe and prompt return of all books issued to her.

Stack books, New shelf books and Music books may be borrowed for 14 days; Reserve Books, Art Books and some Reference Books for overnight loan only. Browsing Room books and most reference books, and periodicals do not circulate.

Fines are charged for the non-observance of the above rule. Failure to pay fines makes a student liable to have library privileges suspended. This means that a student may not use the library in any way whatsoever until the fine is paid.

Personal belongings, books, notes, etc., must not be kept in the library. The cloakroom is reserved for this purpose.

Ink must not be used at the catalogue, or when using reference books, or in the Browsing Room. Ink bottles must be kept in the cloakroom.

After reading the above you will have a fair understanding of the use of the library. Do not fail to ask the library assistants for any help you may need.

FRESHMEN FROLICS

Y.W.

INVITES YOU TO
AN INFORMAL DANCE ~

SAT. NIGHT SEPT. 27

Party for Freshmen

On the second Saturday night, September 27, the Y. W. C. A. will have an informal dance for all the freshmen and their dates.

Y. W. C. A.
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE 1947-48

President	PATRICIA TRAUGOTT, '48
Vice-President	JUANITA MINCHEW, '48
Secretary	PATRICIA CANSLER, '48
Treasurer	MARGARET WOODS, '49
Head of Orientation Committee	JOAN JOHNSTON, '49

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

The Sweet Briar Y. W. C. A. strives to overcome any indifference, ignorance and confusion of students in regard to the relevancy of the Christian faith in modern life. And we join in the national purpose "to unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God, . . . to have a part in making this life possible for all people"; . . . and in this task "to understand Jesus and follow Him."

THE ASSOCIATION AT WORK

Membership

All members of the student body are automatically members of the Y. W. C. A. All members of the Cabinet (Officers and class representatives) are chosen from the members of the Association.

ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

The Orientation Committee is an organization which works throughout the year to acquaint the new students with all phases of college life. By means of parties, picnics, and informal gatherings given at different times during the year new students will have the opportunity of meeting upperclassmen and of learning about the college. The Orientation Committee, working with a sub-committee, will be present during the first week of school to welcome new students and to make each newcomer feel thoroughly at home.

Committee on Schools

The Committee on Schools shall be headed by the Vice-President of the Association and shall consist of one member elected from each class. Each class member will be elected by the class at the time of the election of class officers from a list submitted by the executive committee of the Association.

The work of this committee is of great importance. Entertainment and elementary instruction in handicrafts are provided during weekly visits to various colored and white schools in Amherst County. Some Y.W.C.A. funds are used to provide hot lunches where necessary and to increase the schools' limited supplies of pencils, paper, clothes and libraries.

Several parties are given throughout the year for the children at each school. The Indian Mission, a mountain settlement of several hundred people of mixed races, gives a Christmas Pageant for their own community as well as for those Sweet Briar girls who have helped there during the year. The children from the two colored schools in appreciation for the help given by Sweet Briar girls come to Sweet Briar and give a special entertainment once every year.

The distribution of schools among the four classes is subject to change each year and is as follows for 1947-48.

Coolwell Colored School.....	Freshmen
Coolwell White School.....	Sophomores
Coolwell Sunday School } Sweet Briar Children }	Juniors
Indian Mission.....	Seniors

COMMISSIONS

The Y. W. C. A. of Sweet Briar is planning a re-organization of its program for next year with the creation of four commissions for discussion and action. The four commissions will be:

- 1) Commission on Basic Religious Beliefs;
- 2) Commission on Personal Growth;
- 3) Commission on Social Responsibility;
- 4) Commission on World Relatedness.

The purposes of the commission plan are threefold: To give every student at Sweet Briar an opportunity to participate in the work of the Y. W. C. A.; to join with the faculty and other students in discussion, debate, and action on matters which are of vital concern to us as responsible individuals; to cut across the entire Sweet Briar community by granting that opportunity for discussion outside academic hours.

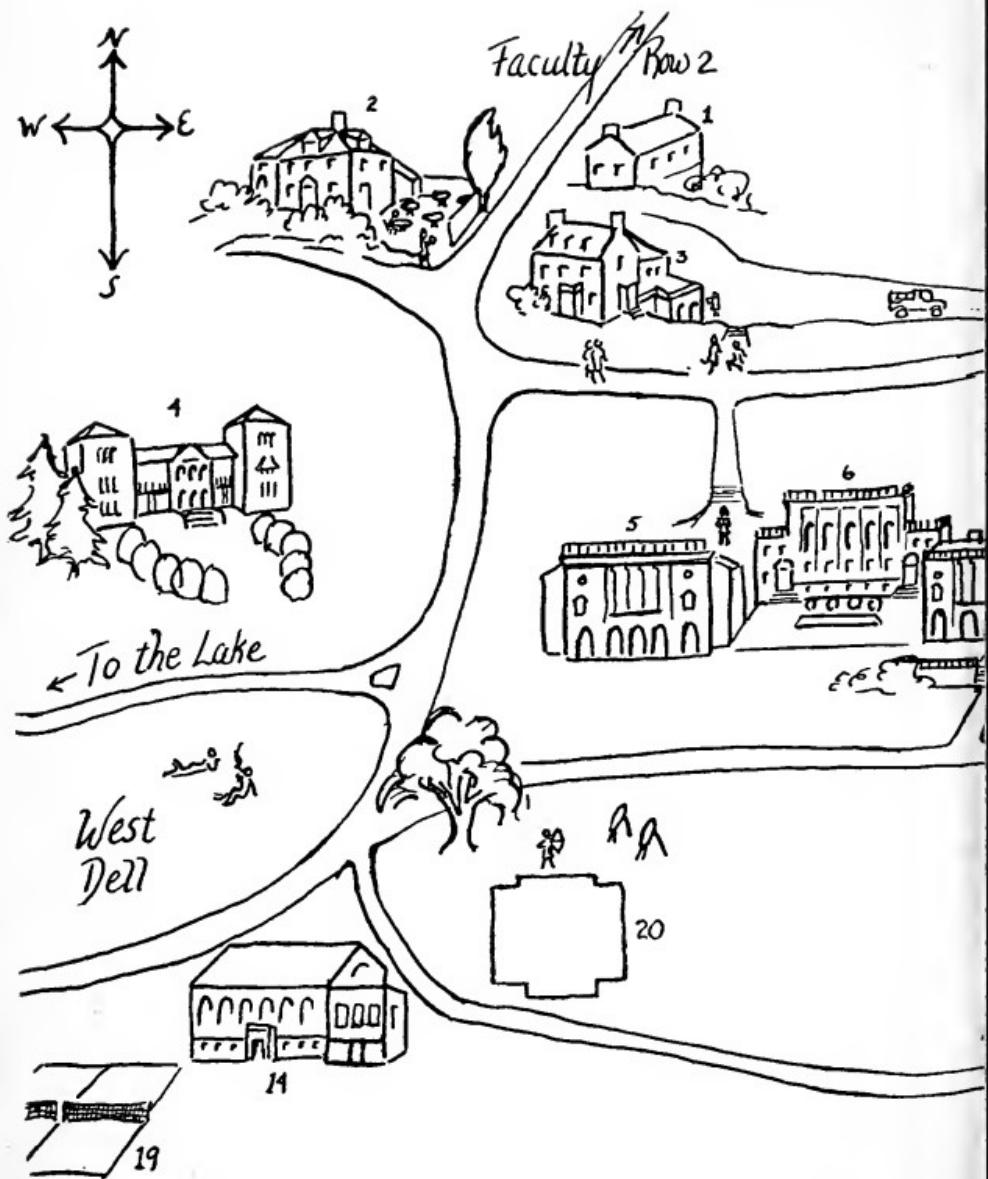

The students will volunteer to participate in the commission which most interests them.

Freshman Cabinet

In the fall of the year the Freshman Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. is elected. The Cabinet, composed of four officers, leads the Freshman Class in various Y. W. C. A. activities during the year: relief projects; parties for the community, such as the Hanging of the Green at Christmas time. The Coolwell Colored School is also sponsored by the class under the leadership of the Freshman Cabinet.

Vesper Service

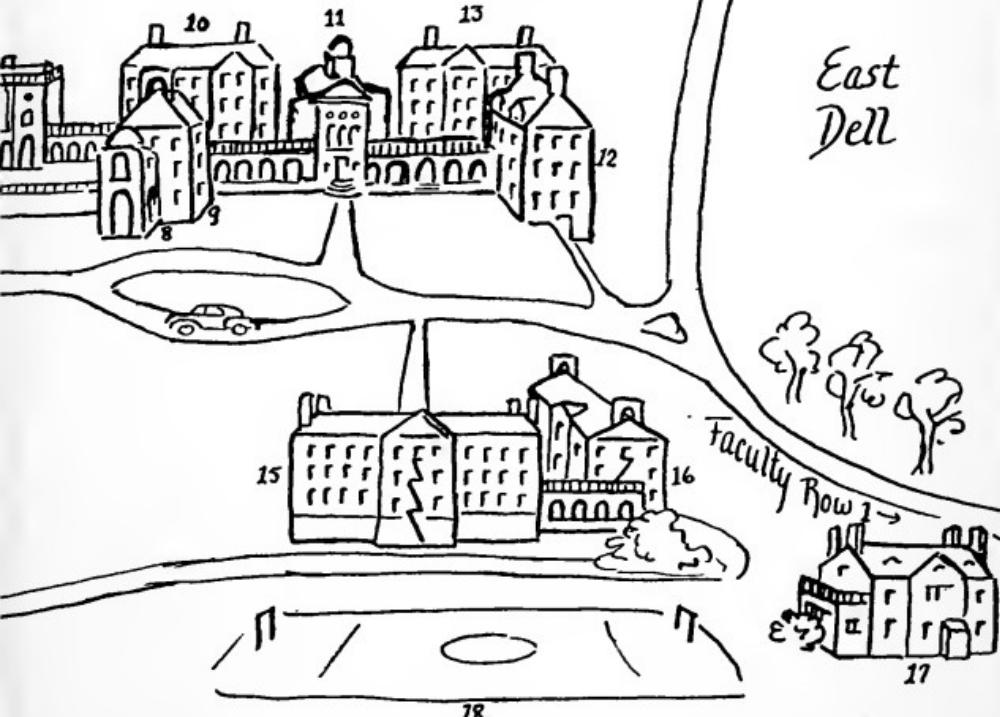

On the Sunday afternoon following our arrival, the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet holds a Vesper service in the West Dell. All members of Sweet Briar community

1. Music Building
2. Boxwood Inn
3. Book Store and Post Office
4. Sweet Briar House
5. Fletcher

are invited. A special invitation is extended to the members of the freshman class.

"Y" Boxes

Five cent packages of cookies and candy kept in "Y" boxes in each dormitory are on sale every night between ten and ten thirty. The proceeds from these sales are used at the discretion of the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet.

Evening Services of Music and Prayer

On alternating Wednesday evenings throughout the year evening chapel services are held under the auspices of the Y.W.C.A. These services are conducted by members of the Association and seem to answer a definite student need.

Religious Discussions

Each spring or fall the Y. W. C. A. invites an outside speaker to hold a series of religious talks and discussions. This person usually spends several days on campus and, in addition to conducting frequent discussion groups, he is available for individual conferences. These interviews prove interesting and beneficial to those girls who avail themselves of the opportunity.

Christmas Stories

For several years the students have gathered together the Sunday afternoon before Christmas to hear stories of Christmas in other countries. Certain members of the community are asked to tell of Christmas in their own native land.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SERVICES

Sweet Briar is non-sectarian, but it endeavors to give a place of prime importance to the Christian religion, and to facilitate the cultivation of spiritual living.

For the Sunday services in the Chapel, visiting preachers are invited from many states and various denominations. The eleven o'clock service on the first Sunday of each month is a communion service. The noon-day chapel services on Tuesday and Friday are usually conducted by faculty members, but sometimes by outside speakers or by students, while the daily evening services during Lent are entirely in charge of the students. Besides these regular services, there are occasional vespers in the Dell, Y. W. C. A. services, and early communion services, as well as an early mass arranged twice a month by the Roman Catholic students. Churches in nearby Amherst and Lynchburg and the synagogue in Lynchburg all welcome students to participation in their services and their activities.

Students have opportunity for informal discussion at meals with visiting ministers and also frequently for scheduled discussion groups and individual conferences.

Working in close cooperation with the Y. W. C. A. in the religious activities of the campus community is the Church and Chapel Committee, composed of certain officers of student government and of the Y. W. C. A. who serve ex-officio, three elected representatives from each class, and a number of faculty members. This committee has general responsibility for the arrangement of college services and for the choice of the philanthropic objects for which the church offerings shall be used.

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Life at Sweet Briar is essentially an outdoor life. Because of this, students take advantage of the splendid opportunities offered for sports of almost every kind. Every student becomes a member of the association on the payment of the Student Activities fee, and is then entitled to the use of all athletic property, such as tennis courts, hockey fields, boats, and canoes. All sports, whether organized or informal, are under the control of the Athletic Association and the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education. In order to recognize good work, awards are given by the point system, consisting of college seals, sweaters, and blazers.

Eligibility

1. All members of the Athletic Association, if physically qualified in the judgment of the physician, may join any sport, provided they agree to the rules of the sport.
2. A student may represent that class of which she is a member, on teams; membership is to be determined by her credits in the Registrar's office. Exceptions to this rule may be made by the Dean and the Director of Physical Education, in consultation.
3. Only members of the Association who have a credit ratio of 1.0 for the preceding years and who have maintained a ratio of 1.2 in the previous semester may be elected to a position on the Executive Committee of the Association.

Class Championship

The class winning the highest number of points in sports each year shall have its numerals placed on a permanent record to be hung in the gymnasium. The points are a cumulation of the results of all the class team games in each sport.

ATHLETIC POINT SYSTEM

Points Awarded to Individuals

A student who has received 1,000 points and who, in the opinion of the Athletic Association Executive Committee, has shown interest beyond her required work, shall be awarded a small Sweet Briar Seal.

A student who has received 2,000 points and who has shown interest in at least two activities beyond her required work, shall be awarded a Sweet Briar sweater.

A blazer is the highest award of the Sweet Briar Athletic Association. It shall be awarded by unanimous vote of the Executive Committee, and not earlier than the spring of the Junior year, to students who fulfill the following requirements:

1. A student must have at least 3,000 points
2. A student must show qualities of leadership which assist the Athletic Association and inspire other students in their participation.
3. A student must show unquestionable sportsmanship and loyalty at all times.

In very exceptional cases the Athletic Association may award a blazer to a student in May of her senior year, who—although she has not quite fulfilled the minimum number of points—has shown to a marked degree the other qualifications for the blazer.

If a student transferring from another college fulfills these requirements but lacks the number of points for a blazer, a record of her athletic activities for her college years previous to her entrance to Sweet Briar shall be obtained from that college, and points computed according to the point system of the Sweet Briar Athletic Association.

CABIN

The Head of Cabin with the Assistant Head of Cabin and a representative of the Department of Physical Education shall formally appoint, at the beginning of each semester, a group of students who shall be called Cabin Leaders. It shall be their duty to make, interpret, and enforce the rules for hiking and for the use of the cabin, subject to the laws of the Student Government Association and the Athletic Association, to punish offenders, and to further the interests of hiking and the Cabin at Sweet Briar.

A Cabin Leader must accompany all parties hiking for points. If a cabin leader cannot be found, a substitute may be appointed by the Head of Cabin or by the President of the Association.

CABIN RULES

The Cabin may be used at any time in accordance with the terms of the Athletic Association. See the A. A. Bulletin Board for detailed rules. The Cabin Calendar will indicate an "open" or "closed" cabin.

Groups Who May Use the Cabin

The Cabin is open to all Sweet Briar students and members of the faculty and staff.

For maintenance and supplies each person will be charged 25 cents per night.

Students may go to and from the Cabin alone except after dark, when they must be accompanied by a member of the faculty or staff or a person approved by the Dean's Office or the Department of Physical Education. See Emergencies on the A. A. Board. See the regular Student Government rules for signing out. A night at the Cabin will not count as a night off campus. A campused person may not use the Cabin. All groups using the Cabin must have an approved Cabin Leader in the party. (This is to insure proper use of the Cabin itself.)

Overnight Groups

Overnight groups must be accompanied by a Cabin Leader and a member of the faculty or staff or an older person approved by the Dean's Office or the Physical Education Department.

Maximum number, 8; minimum, 4.

Girls With Dates

Girls with dates may use the Cabin in the day time when Open House is announced on the College Calendar; and for picnic lunches and suppers when accompanied by a Cabin Leader and provided they return to campus before dark.

No one is to drive beyond the green gate.

No one is to smoke in the woods or in the bunk room.

HORSEBACK RIDING

No student may go riding until a written permission from parent or guardian is filed in the office of the Department of Physical Education. No student may ride alone off campus. No student may jump unless approved for jumping by the Riding Council and unless a qualified person is in charge.

There shall be a Riding Council presided over by the Head of Riding and consisting of the Riding Leaders, "A" Riders, and a representative of the Department of Physical Education. It shall be their duty to make, interpret, and enforce the rules for riding, subject to the laws of the Student Government Association and the Athletic Association, to punish offenders, and to further the interests of riding at Sweet Briar.

All students at Sweet Briar are to be divided into the following classes:

Jumping Leaders: Students who are formally appointed at the beginning of each college year by the Riding council, and who may supervise students who have been approved for jumping, or jump themselves when accompanied by another person.

Riding Leaders: Students who are formally appointed during the college year by the Riding council, and who may take "B" or "C" riders on or off campus, or ride alone on campus.

"A" Riders: Students who have been approved by the Riding Council, and who may ride alone on campus or who, with the permission of the instructor of Riding or the Head of Riding, may take "B" or "C" riders on or off campus.

"B" Riders: Students who have passed a definite riding test and who may ride in groups of two without a riding leader off campus, or alone on campus. "B" Class Riders may not act as riding leaders for "C" class riders.

"C" Riders: All girls who have not passed the riding test, and who may not ride without a riding leader.

SWIMMING, BOATING AND CANOEING

No student may swim until a written permission from her parent or guardian is filed in the office of the Department of Physical Education. No student may swim unless accompanied by the authorized proctor and at specified times.

There shall be a Lake Council, formally appointed each college year, presided over by the Head of Lake, and consisting of a representative of the Department of Physical Education and the life guards appointed by the Head of Lake. It shall be their duty to make, interpret, and enforce the rules for swimming and boating, subject to the laws of the Student Government Association and the Athletic Association; to punish offenders, and to further the interests of swimming at Sweet Briar.

No student may use the boats until she has passed the swimming test at Sweet Briar, unless she is accompanied by a member of the Lake Council or a Sweet Briar student who is a holder of the Red Cross Senior Life Saving Emblem or the Intercamp Life Saving Emblem.

No student may take out a canoe until she has passed the canoe test. No student may go on the Lake in a canoe unless she has passed the swimming test and is accompanied by one who has passed the canoe test.

All members of the Association and their guests may use the Boat House in accordance with the Lake Regulations posted each year on the Athletic Association Bulletin Board.

NOTE: A college rule prevents dates from using the Lake for swimming.

DANCE

There shall be three Dance Groups namely: Choreography, Dance Group and Tanz Zirkel—typifying respectively three levels of ability and experience. Choreography, being the highest, offers in addition to dancing the opportunity for dance composition.

Tanz Zirkel is mainly for freshmen who during the fall and winter have shown interest as well as talent in dancing. Dance Group and Choreography are the upperclassmen dance groups.

Participation shall be on an optional basis. However, if a member does not show sufficient interest she will be asked to resign.

Members in these dance groups and especially members of Choreography are responsible for promoting interest in dance at Sweet Briar.

Students will be advanced from optional classes into one of the dance groups by means of trials.

COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS

The Board of Publications

Chairman, ANNE RYLAND RICKS

The Board of Publications acts as an advisory body to the four college publications in all matters of finance and of policy. It has control of the joint reserve fund of these publications, and it elects the editor and the business manager of the Sweet Briar News and of the Handbook.

The Board is composed of the undergraduate active and retired editors and business managers of the four college publications, the faculty advisors to these publications, the faculty advisor to the Board, and the president of the student government association. The chairman and the secretary-treasurer of the Board are elected from among its student members.

The Briar Patch

Editor-in-Chief, JULIA BALDWIN

Business Manager, ANN LANE

The Briar Patch, the Sweet Briar annual, is published every spring. A project of the junior class, it forms an interesting part of extra-curricular activity during the junior year. Each year the staff tries to give in the pages of the Briar Patch a picture of school life during the year that will serve as a permanent record and reminder for the years when school days are over.

The Sweet Briar News*Editor-in-Chief, MADDIN LUPTONBusiness Manager, NANCY MOSES*

The Sweet Briar News is the weekly newspaper published by the students. It aims to give the students, faculty, and community reports of all the news which will be of interest to them. All students and especially Freshmen, whether they have had experience on school newspapers or not, are urged to try out for a position on the staff.

The Brambler*Editor-in-Chief, DOROTHY BOTTOMBusiness Manager, HARRIOTTE BLAND*

The Brambler is the college literary magazine, issued not less than four times a year. It consists of voluntary contributions of short stories, formal essays, plays, poems, and book reviews. Members of all four classes are invited to contribute articles for publication in competition for a place on the staff.

The Handbook*Editor, ANNE RYLAND RICKSBusiness Manager, MARGARET ADDINGTON*

The HANDBOOK is published every fall and a copy is sent to each freshman to introduce her to Sweet Briar. The upperclassmen receive theirs upon their return to college. The HANDBOOK contains an outline of the structure upon which Sweet Briar life is built, forming an important source of reference throughout the year.

CLUBSTau Phi

President, MARY LOUISE LLOYD

Tau Phi, Sweet Briar's upperclass honorary society, is composed of a limited number of Juniors and Seniors, who by their attitude and effort have manifested an especial interest in furthering the ideals and traditions of Sweet Briar. The purpose of Tau Phi is to stimulate an interest in and to cooperate with student and community activities.

Q. V.

Q. V. is an honorary society composed solely of Sophomores. The aim of the group is to perpetuate the cohesiveness and initiative of the class founded in the freshman year.

Paint and Patches

President, KATHERINE BERTHIER

Paint and Patches, the Sweet Briar Dramatic Club, was organized for the purpose of creating and developing an active interest in all branches of drama, and to promote a deeper knowledge of the technique of dramatic art.

Eligibility for membership in Paint and Patches is determined by a system of grading which evaluates the work of all candidates. The many departments of the club—scenery, acting, make up, costumes, properties, lights—provide opportunity for those interested in various branches of the theatre to become members.

Choir*Head, BLAIR GRAVES*

The choir is a very active group at Sweet Briar. The members are about thirty-five in number and are selected from among the best voices in the college. The members of the Choir have an opportunity to become acquainted with a wide range of sacred music, notable examples of which are a cappella singing, Anglican chants, and Plain song. Election to the Choir is considered a distinct honor.

A great deal of the beauty of the Sweet Briar Church service is due to the well-trained Choir, which is vested and sings at every Sunday service. The Choir renders suitable musical programs at Christmas, Easter and on other special occasions.

Chapel Choir*Head, BARBARA FAVILL*

The Chapel Choir is a voluntary organization in which everyone is urged to participate at sometime during the year. The only requirement for membership is interest and willingness to give the time. The nucleus of the group is made up of girls who are training for Glee Club and the Sunday Choir. Everyone in the Glee Club is required to sing in the Chapel Choir at least five times each semester. The aim of the Chapel Choir is to enhance the spiritual atmosphere of the weekday Chapel services through the use of the best hymns and sacred music.

Glee Club*President, MARTHA FRYE*

The Glee Club offers instruction in group singing and an acquaintance with choral music to all students whose talent and enthusiasm make them eligible for membership. Individual try-outs in the fall limit the number of members. Weekly meetings throughout the year prove of great value in both individual training and in appreciation of choral singing. The year's work is culminated by joint concerts with outside glee clubs.

International Relations Club

President, SUZANNE HARDY

The International Relations Club was founded under the auspices and with the assistance of the Carnegie Endowment of International Peace. The club is composed of students who, by passing a test given in the fall, show an interest in international relations. The purpose of the club is to further understanding of contemporary world problems, and to stimulate throughout the college an interest in international affairs.

Le Cercle Français

President, CAROLINE RANKIN

Membership in Le Cercle Français is limited. New members are elected from a list of applications to fill vacancies.

The purpose of the programs presented at each meeting of Le Cercle Français is the increasing of interest in French culture, especially that of modern France along other than academic lines.

The English Club

President, AUDREY LAHMAN

All juniors and seniors who are majoring in English are eligible for membership in the English Club. The purpose of the club is to afford an opportunity to those who wish it, and have chosen this subject, for the study and enjoyment of English literature beyond the limitations of the classroom. At the club meetings, held every month, books of recent publication—novels, drama, poetry, biography, or history—are reviewed by outside lecturers or club members, followed by an open discussion.

The Classical Club*President, MARGUERITE RUCKER*

The Classical Club is composed of active members, students taking courses in Greek or Latin, and associate members, students who have taken Greek or Latin courses at Sweet Briar. The purpose of the organization is to stimulate and further general interest in classical culture. One meeting is held each month at which a program pertaining to classical literature or general culture is given by outside lecturers or members of the club.

Der Deutsche Verein*President, BEATRICE BACKER*

The members of Der Deutsche Verein are students who have had at least one year of German or the equivalent, and who are chosen on the basis of interest. All interested members of the community are invited to participate in the open meetings which are held several times a year. The club gives students an opportunity to use German outside the classroom, and to become familiar with the songs, traditions, and political background of Germany.

El Club Espanol*President, MARTHA SUE SKINNER*

El Club Espanol is composed of those students in the Spanish Department who have had at least one semester of Spanish and who are particularly interested in Spanish. At the monthly meetings members of the club give talks or lead discussions on all phases of Spanish and Latin American culture. El Club Espanol is affiliated with the Washington Chapter of El Instituto de las Espanas. El Ateneo is a small honorary group within the club.

Misiones

The Sweet Briar Misiones is one of the several groups by that name in Virginia. The members of these groups strive to further friendship and good feeling toward our Latin-American neighbors among the elementary and high school children of their districts. At various county schools the Misiones girls, all in costume, present colorful programs of Latin-American songs, dances, skits, and games, asking members of the audience to take part in the latter.

Misiones is sponsored by the Spanish Club. Membership is limited to those who show enthusiasm for the work and loyalty to the group. It is best that Misiones members have some knowledge of the Spanish language.

The Music Club

President, CONSTANCE TUNNELL

The aims of the Music Club are to develop in its members poise and confidence in performance, and to stimulate musical interest on the campus. During the year each student is expected to play, sing, or otherwise contribute to the program. The music faculty occasionally performs and lectures on requested subjects.

The membership of the Music Club is limited to 35 students. The basis of acceptance is the interest of the applicant.

The Sociology Club

President, ANNABELL BROCK

The Sociology Club is primarily for Sociology majors. However, those persons who have had at least three hours in the department and have shown exceptional interest are eligible for membership upon receiving an invitation. The club sponsors outside speakers, allows an opportunity for student discussion of ideas, and will participate in activities in neighboring communities this year.

Political Economy Club

Chairman, EVALENA SHARP

The Political Economy Club stimulates interest in political and economic problems, especially those of the United States. This organization provides an opportunity for those who are interested in such problems to exchange views and to receive and discuss the views of outside speakers and informed members of the Sweet Briar community.

United World Federalists

President, MARY MORRIS GAMBLE

The Sweet Briar Chapter of United World Federalists is a new organization on campus. The chapter here is a part of the national organization. The purpose of the organization is to work for world peace by campaigning for "world government with limited powers adequate to prevent war." The organization supports the United Nations and believes in strengthening the United Nations until it has the power of a true government. Any student or faculty member who believes that a federal world government is necessary for world peace may join. The chapter carries out its purpose by educating its members on the principles of federalism and on the need for world government, and by educating the community in general on these points. The membership is unlimited.

THE BOXWOOD INN

The Boxwood Inn is the boon of our existence. Here we often have birthday suppers and Sunday morning breakfasts; when we're feeling generous or have just received our allowance from home, it's here that we entertain our roommates.

Snacks to relieve that in-between-meal feeling can be bought at the shop from 8:00 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. on weekdays and from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. on Sunday. If you have time to sit around and chat there's always someone in the Fireplace Room which is open from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m., from 1:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., and from 9:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. every day. On warm days, we gather out in the patio to sip cokes and talk or read the news from home, after which it is nice to help keep the Inn spic and span by putting our cups or boxes in the trash cans.

If your visitor wants to stay on campus, you can get rooms by reservation at the Inn.

It is necessary to make reservations for lunch and dinner.

Meals are served:

Breakfast: Weekdays: 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Sunday: 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Lunch: Weekdays: 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.

Sunday: 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Dinner: 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Just as the Sophomores have their wall, the Juniors, their bench, and the Seniors, their Golden Stairs—you too have a cherished possession, the fireplug. This may be one of the many things that will seem strange to you at first, but you'll soon catch on with the friendly help of the Orientation Committee. That's the smiling group of girls who'll be at the Sweet Briar station to carry your bags, and show you to your room. They'll be on hand to see you safely through the first few hectic weeks, for that's their main concern.

Here are a few hints which we think might be helpful before you get here. Bring plenty of cottons for the hot

September days—we're south, remember! A formal for special occasions—a white dress for Founder's Day—rubber boots, and a lightweight raincoat (to wear over your gym suit as well as on rainy days) are real necessities. Also bring hammer and nails, a few coathangers, and clothes and shoe bags to help you put your room in order. Don't forget that your room will be "home" to you for nine months, so bring pictures, bureau scarfs, stuffed animals, favorite books, or any doodads that will give it a homey look.

Money may be a problem. Your allowance, of course, is entirely up to you and your family. The big things are included in your tuition, and the $30 Student Activities Fee and $25 Book Shop Fee cover quite a bit. But the little things do mount up! There are snacks at the Inn, jaunts to Amherst, trips to Lynchburg, departmental club dues, room furnishings, and everyday necessities, such as soap, toothpaste, etc. So make a mental note of these when you're adding up expenses.

A quick sketch of the year's calendar of events will give you an idea of the traditional happenings at Sweet Briar. Early in the fall comes a Freshman project which you will decide upon after you get here. The Seniors don their caps and gowns (hemmed by you!) for the first time on Founder's Day, and most of the school walks up to the Monument for a short service. Singing is one of our favorite pastimes here, and the two stepsingings are the culmination of the song-writing and harmonizing that goes on all the time. At the fall stepsinging the members of Tau Phi are announced, and the Chung Mungs march that night in their white sheets. "Marchings" are also traditional—you'll love the excitement that goes with watching girls march through the dorms to pick out new members of their clubs. Later, the Seniors present their show—written, directed, and acted by them. But Freshmen have a chance to display their talent, too, in the P&P Freshman play in December. To catch the Christmas spirit, as well as to help you with your shopping problems, we have a Bazaar to which the Lynchburg shops send their loveliest Christmas gifts. Games, good food, and an auction all give the occasion an air of festivity. But the Freshmen really usher in the Christmas season with their early morning carols on the day vacation begins.

Midwinter's, sponsored by the Sophomore class, starts the second semester off with a bang. Horseshows and Lake Day come with spring, and, of course, there is May Day! It's unbelievably beautiful to see the May Queen, accompanied by her court (including two freshmen pages), crowned in the dell. The year is appropriately climaxed by graduation—just three more years for you!

Throughout the year you will find that week-ends provide a welcome break in the regular schedule of things. At the college on Friday nights outstanding lectures and concerts are presented. You will find them very interesting and helpful. And the campus itself offers many hours of fun—riding through the woods, canoeing on the lake, or hiking up to the cabin for the night. Of course, with men's colleges back to normal, you will probably be spending several weekends at Virginia, Washington and Lee, V.M.I., et cetera—they're tops for a wonderful time!

With all this in mind, we hope you will come ready to put yourself wholeheartedly into everything you do—studies, first—and then the various activities that will engage you during moments of mental relaxation. But, undoubtedly, you will also come perplexed by many things. Just remember—any upperclassman, especially the Juniors in your dorm and your House President, will be glad to help in every way.

DEAR SWEET BRIAR GIRL,—

*On Rivermont Avenue, in the City of Hills,
Your eager eye with pleasure fills,
For "THE COLUMNS" stand stately and tall,
With "fashions in foods" for one and all.
From 8 A. M. 'til 11 at night
With music, flowers, and prices right,
The Coca Cola room where you may buy
Sandwiches, candy, cakes and pie.
Your birthday cakes we'll make for you,
And cater for your clubs and sororities too—
With anything that pleases you.*

*Joyful and gay we'll make week-ends,
Caring for your parents and friends.
In antiques we deal—and gifts galore,
You'll find in our little treasure store.
Come, Sweet Briar girls, be happy and gay,
As you feast with us from day to day.*
